

MOUNT INDEPENDENCE: SPRING HIKE INTO HISTORY

Sat., May 6, 2017 • 1:00– 4:00 PM

Mount Independence State Historic Site • 497 Mount Independence Road, Orwell, VT

Ticonderoga & its Dependencies August 1777 (802) 759-2412

Explore the "Strong Ground" of Mount Independence. Guided walk on grounds and off the trails. Learn about Revolutionary War military strategy. See remains of American defenses built in 1776-1777. Led by Revolutionary War expert Mike Barbieri, Mount Independence Coalition president Stephen Zeoli, & site administrator Elsa Gilbertson. Meet at museum for orientation.

$5.00 adults, free for children under 15

Wear boots and dress for the weather.

DIVISION FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION
(802) 828-3051 / www.historicsites.vermont.gov

Vermont State Historic Sites: History Where It Happened